

BOEING 737 FUSELAGE REPAIR, MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA

A service truck struck the aircraft causing damage to its forward right-hand side fuselage. SOAR provided a complete evaluation and repair within budget.

Project scope included removal of damage, frame and skin installations, final checks and certification.

For a graphic presentation of this repair please visit: www.sourceoneaircraftrepair.com.